

BISHOP HALL NOT FOR PROHIBITION

In Sermon in Raleigh He Says Experience Teaches Him It Will Not Work.

FIGHT THE OLD LAUNDRIES

Citizens Organize One to Meet the Advance in Prices—Harbor Convention Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., October 29.—In a striking sermon Sunday at Christ Episcopal Church, this city, the Rt. Rev. A. C. Hall, D. D., Bishop of Vermont, declared that he has no faith in prohibition, which he said seemed to be gaining ground in the South rapidly. He had seen it tried in New England, sometimes honestly, sometimes fraudulently, and sometimes as a part of political schemes, but that his experience taught him that it will not work. He said that in small localities the sale of liquor might be restricted, but not to any advantage in the larger towns. He insisted that prohibition laws have the tendency to draw saloons underground, where they are without regulation. He contended that the true Christian position was not "thou shalt not have a glass," but to work quietly on the man within and educate him up to self-restraint, and if need be, to total abstinence. To educate the individuals up to the evils of excessive drink was the true mission of temperance, rather than any fanatical effort in the direction of legal prohibition.

Former Mayor Hill. Deep concern is felt by friends here regarding the condition of ex-Mayor A. M. Powell, who has been desperately ill several days. He has been unconscious two days. He served four terms as Mayor, his administrations being especially salutary for the municipal interests.

The people's Laundry, Inc., organized by citizens of Raleigh for the purpose of contesting the action of the two old laundries in making a general advance in charges for laundry, has purchased the building of the old Carolina Phosphate Works west of the city. The place is to be remodeled and machinery will be installed and ready for operation within three months. Cary Hunter is president of the company.

Rivers and Harbors Convention. Governor Glenn has designated the two North Carolina Senators and the ten Congressmen of the State as delegates to represent North Carolina at the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, to be held in Washington December 4th, 5th and 6th. The sessions will be held at the Willard Hotel.

Governor Glenn at noon today heard a delegation appearing in the interest of Robert Lilliston, who has served two years of a fifteen-year sentence for shooting Charles Smith, of Petersburg, in the crowded waiting-room of the Union Depot here about the last day of the State Fair three years ago. It is understood that Judge Ward, who tried the case, and Solicitor Jones, who prosecuted, join in the petition for the pardon.

Peanut Company Chartered. A charter is issued for the Virginia Carolina Peanut Company, of Williamsport, capital, $100,000 authorized, and $5,000 subscribed, by J. G. Godard and others. The Orange Telephone Company, of Cedar Grove, Orange county, capital, $10,000 authorized, $150 subscribed, by W. R. Roberts, M. W. Arrowood and others. The One-Price Store, Elkin, capital $5,000 authorized, and $1,500 subscribed, by C. C. Williams and others.

Dr. W. O. Jones, High Point, Va. The Provident Savings Life Assurance Company, of New York, is a case that has been pending in the Wake Superior Court the past two days. It being a suit by Dr. Jones to cover premiums and interest thereon that he claims and interest thereon that he claims and interest thereon that he claims. The agent represented to him would mature in fifteen years. Now premiums paid and interest thereon amount to $15,000, and the company demands continued payments, and at a higher rate.

LEONARD GIVES BAIL WITH MOTHER AS SURETY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., October 29.—H. C. Leonard, the Southern Railway brakeman held responsible by the jury of inquest for the death of passengers killed in the wreck at Road, and arrested for manslaughter last night, gave a thousand dollar bond to-day for his appearance for trial at December court. His mother came from Salisbury and qualified as his bondsman. Leonard is a son of a former sheriff of Davidson county, now dead.

DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED.

Compromise of a Case Involving $50,000—Fair Begins To-Day. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., October 29.—The case of H. H. Nance, against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway for $50,000 damages for the loss of his right arm in a wreck at Hope Mills, was settled to-day out of court. Concessions were made on both sides, but the settlement was liberal. Counsel for both sides stated the amount. The Lafayette Auditorium Company gave out a contract for the building of its new opera house to-day. Louis Dalsheimer, a traveling salesman, was arrested at the Hotel Cumberland to-day and carried to Goldsboro, charged with "jumping" a board bill at the Hotel Kennon, in that city. The Cumberland Fair opens to-day, the hotels and boarding houses are filling up and the grounds are crowded with shows and exhibits rolling in.

YADKIN VALLEY FAIR.

Exhibition Opens With Large Crowd Present—Senator Overman Speaks.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., October 29.—The Yadkin Valley Fair, the first of the kind to be held at this place, opened here to-day with a grand parade and a stirring address by Senator Lee S. Overman of this city. The opening day was a big success, and the character of exhibits bid fair to hold a large attendance throughout the week. The parade was participated in and witnessed by thousands of people, including many distinguished visitors and citizens.

The address of Senator Lee S. Overman was heard by about 5,000 people. His theme was "The Industrial South," and the address was replete with both retrospective and prospective advice, and was a great speech. More than 100 exceptionally fine exhibits are on the ground, among them being a poultry and stock display by George W. Vanderbilt. In the races this afternoon, Lucy Gentry, owned by Dr. J. J. Mott, of Salisbury, won the best heat in the 2:30 event, in 2:22 3/4, prize $300. The second and third places were won by King James and Major Viceroy, respectively. To-morrow will be Salisbury Day, and Thursday and Friday will be Everybody's Day. M. L. Jackson is president of the Fair Association, and W. Henry Hobson is chief marshal.

Burglars at Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., October 29.—A series of attempted burglaries occurred in Salisbury last night, but with meagre results. The homes of ex-Sheriff D. R. Julian and Charles W. Mowery were entered, but the robbers were frightened away. Two white men were seen in a room by Mrs. Julian.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILSON, N. C., October 29.—A company has been organized for the publication of a daily paper, which will begin as soon as the outfit can be secured.

NOTABLE WEDDING AT "TUSCAN VILLA"

Marriage of Miss Elizabeth Vance Glasgow to Mr. Henry McCorkle a Brilliant Event.

RECEPTION AND SUPPER

Couple Plight Their Vows Under a Canopy, and Guests Entertained After Ceremony.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., October 29.—Tuscan Villa, the lovely ancestral home of the bride, near Lexington, on South River, was the scene of an interesting nuptial event this evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Vance Glasgow, daughter of Mrs. Laura Mackey Glasgow, was married to Mr. Henry McCorkle, son of Mrs. Virginia Wilson McCorkle, of near Lexington, and now a prominent member of the New York bar. The marriage ceremony was celebrated by Rev. Emmett W. Entwistle, of Nicholasville, Ky., brother of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. James A. McClure, of Buena Vista, the bride's pastor. The happy event was witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride wore a handsome gown of embroidered chiffon over liberty satin and trimmed in lace. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and white violets. Her ornaments were a coronet of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and her veil was caught with an ornament of aqua marines, heirlooms of the Glasgow family. She was attended by her sisters, Misses Lucy Godwin Glasgow and Mary Thompson Glasgow, as maids of honor. They were crowned in white net over green tulle, with lace trimmings and green girdles, and carried large bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Frank A. Cook, of New York City, best man. The bride party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Louise Meriwether, of Buena Vista, and during the impressive ceremony she softly rendered "The Rose Tree." The bride entered the little Miss Katherine Fontaine Paxton, as flower girl, who was daintily dressed in white chiffon batiste trimmed in Valenciennes lace, and carrying a horn of plenty with flowers, and Master Zevon Paxton, the page, dressed in white satin blouse suit, bearing a shepherd's crook with flowers. They bore ribbons, with which they made an aisle for the bride. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Alexander McCorkle, of Knoxville, Tenn., by whom she was given away.

Following the marriage a reception was held in honor of the bridal party and a number of guests, concluding with an elaborate and sumptuous repast in the dining-room were decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and chrysanthemums, the color scheme being green and gold. The nuptial vows were pledged under a canopy suspended from the ceiling. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle drove to Buena Vista and took the midnight train for a trip to the Northern cities and the White Mountains, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside in New York.

WOOD-BENNETT.

Pretty Roanoke Girl Weds Young Man From Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., October 29.—At a grand nuptial ceremony at 8 o'clock last night at 9 o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Bennett, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary C. Bennett, and Mr. Horace Gilbert Wood, of Norfolk, married, Rev. T. T. Fishburne officiating. The bride party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Brown, the bride's cousin. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, and carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was witnessed by a large company of guests. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where the couple were entertained by the bride's parents. The bride is the daughter of a prominent family in Roanoke.

GLAZE-KERIL.

Pretty Wedding and One of Much Interest in Powhatan.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) POWHATAN, VA., October 28.—One of the most notable weddings of the season was solemnized in Genito Presbyterian Church on Saturday at high noon, when Mr. J. Glaze led Miss Keril to the hymeneal altar.

Rev. Mr. George McFadden, of Richmond, officiated. The church was beautifully decorated. The bride party entered in the following order to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, sweetly rendered by Mrs. H. H. Dennis, the bridesmaids lastingly gowned in white and pink silk mulls and carrying white and pink roses came down one aisle, while just opposite them a corresponding number of groomsmen entered, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Staplecamp, who wore a lovely creation of white chiffon, and the bride radiant in a handsome gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed in real lace and pearls, and a well fitted up with a shower bouquet of pearls. Opposite them the groom entered on the arm of his best man and brother, Mr. C. J. Glaze, from Elizabeth City, N. C.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lee Jeter, of Richmond; Miss Nellie Burton, Miss Maggie Knabe, the Misses Dennis and Miss Edna Jennings, all of Clayville. The groomsmen were Professor Morris, of London, England; Mr. H. H. Dennis, Richmond; Messrs. Guy Thayer, R. Holman, Albert Kerr and Walter Grigg.

Flanagan-Williams.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) AFTON, VA., October 29.—Miss Lola Williams, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Williams, of Onan, was married to Mr. Carson Flanagan, of Charlottesville.

Their State Convention Begins Its Session in Danville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA., October 29.—The annual State Convention of the King's Daughters convened in this city to-day for a session of three days. About fifty visiting delegates from all parts of the State are in attendance. At the session this morning, Mrs. Burton, of Richmond, the president, presided, and the address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. James T. Catlin, of Danville. The response was made by Mrs. T. A. McWilson, of Portsmouth. Mrs. H. F. Barber, of Richmond, delivered an interesting lecture on the work of the King's Daughters at the Masonic Home in Richmond.

A feature of the meeting to-day was the reception at the residence of Mrs. H. L. Boatwright in honor of the visiting ladies. The reception following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Lucas left on a honeymoon tour.

REVENUE MUCH SMALLER.

More Railroad Tickets Being Sold, But Less Money Taken In.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., October 29.—Ticket agents of the railroad centering in Lynchburg find there is little difference in travel out of Lynchburg since the use of the two-cent rate. The number of tickets sold compares favorably with the same period last year, but in the aggregate income from this source there is a big deficiency. At the office in the Union Station, the sales are about $50 a day, with a large decrease at the three uptown offices.
